

James Reeb Unitarian Universalist Congregation

The Wi$dom Path: Money, Spirit, and Life

A "Tapestry of Faith" Religious Education Program for Adults

The Wi$dom Path program will allow us to explore our attitudes and behaviors toward money in our everyday, spiritual, and congregational lives.

Three sessions will be held at JRUUC in the Multipurpose Room on:

- Sunday, June 1st @ 8am: "Talking about Money"
- Friday, June 6th @ 6pm: "The Meaning of Money in Our Lives" (with potluck dinner)
- Sunday, June 8th @ 8am: "Cultural Lessons about Money and Wealth"

Facilitators will be Beth Esser, Mark Lydon, and Carin Bringelson of the JRUUC Stewardship Team.

Register by Tuesday, May 27th! Please email beth_esser@hotmail.com (or print, fill out, and place this form in the Stewardship box in the JRUUC office) with the following information:

Name: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Child care is requested for: _____ (# of kids) who are these ages: _____

Registration fee of $5 covers the costs for the Sundays' refreshments and can be paid at the first class. (Checks can be made out "JRUUC" with "Adult RE" in the memo line.)

Scholarships are available! We do not want anyone to avoid a class due to financial difficulty! Please contact any member of the Stewardship Team with questions.

James Reeb Unitarian Universalist Congregation
2146 East Johnson Street
Madison WI 53704

www.jruuc.org
608-242-8887