

James Reeb UU Congregation Financial Commitment Form

Dear Friends,

Our congregation is growing – in heart, in numbers, and in reach! Our ministries are thriving; we care for each other, inspire each other, challenge each other, and reach out in love. We are deeply engaged in the practice of learning to be whole people in community, and we are creating some amazing momentum!

Our ministries start with you – with us. We welcome all people – we greet them, we engage them, we offer them a place where they can be real. We offer rich and meaningful worship, inspirational and relevant faith development for all ages, and important opportunities to be both social and active. We articulate clear expectations of each other – we know that being part of the Reeb community means making a commitment to living our values, to engaging our minds, our hearts, and our hands. We offer ways to make positive change in our community through that commitment – and we are creating deep and meaningful transformation in our congregation and in ourselves.

And our ministries are possible because we support our staff, our programs, and our denomination with our financial contributions. Please take the time to consider what it means to you and your loved ones to be part of this thriving and growing congregation, and pledge as generously as you are able.

In faith and love,

James Reeb UU Congregation Financial Commitment Form
