All group gatherings, including but not limited to meetings, religious education, Covenant Groups, and choir take place either:

- virtually, with participants at home as individuals or family groups, or
- outdoors in accordance with the guidelines for outdoor gatherings that appear below.

All gatherings and meetings will include an online accessibility option for those not able to gather physically. [Add: Online options might include separate virtual gatherings for people not able to attend in-person gatherings, a set time to “stream in” people who’d like to greet people attending an in-person event, a Zoom option for meetings, or any other creative option that works toward wider inclusion.]

Staff Practices

All staff work remotely, except for essential business that must be conducted in the building.

All meetings are held virtually.

Outdoor Gatherings

Keep the size of the gathering to a maximum of 15 people, or split into smaller groups when the total exceeds 15. The organizer of the gathering is responsible to implement the outdoor gathering guidelines for this level, to communicate them to participants as needed, and to provide a means of virtual participation [remove: if applicable].

All participants will sign in, and the organizer will keep a copy of the sign-in sheet for two weeks in case contact tracing should be necessary.

Ensure a physical distance from each other of at least six feet.

Arrive at all outdoor gatherings wearing a mask. Masks may be removed if all participants explicitly express comfort in doing so.

Bring hand sanitizer. Avoid touching ones’ face and frequently wash or sanitize hands, if possible.

Singing, chanting, reciting prayers, playing wind instruments or performing deep-breathing exercises may occur outdoors in groups of six or fewer people, wearing singing masks and staying at least six feet apart, for a maximum of 30 minutes per small group (in addition to any other speaking time). Volume for vocal activities will be no louder than ordinary conversation.

Refrain from bringing items for sharing with others.

The JRUUC building is open for restroom use, according to the guidelines listed above.
